

FEBRUARY 22, 2007
VOLUME 5, NUMBER 5

You are receiving this e-mail as an opt-in subscriber to the Port Authority's e-newsletter list. Thank you for your subscription. To unsubscribe, please e-mail ontarget-request@onthebase.com with "unsubscribe" in the subject line.

Welcome Samuel Manu-Tech

Since an April groundbreaking, the new 151,000 s.f. building for Canadian-based Samuel Manu-Tech has grown out of the cornfield south of The Base. The $14 million facility, developed for Samuel by Southgate Corporation, will be populated with 120 employees. The steel fabrication plant will produce steel strapping using state-of-the-art equipment. The main reason COATC was chosen? Rail service.

GO TO: <http://www.coatc.com/smt>

Southgate-Port Authority Partnership

Public-private partnerships are the hallmark of the Port Authority's mission. Former Lt. Governor Bruce Johnson, in his remarks at the August opening for the Boeing AWACS-ESM, called the Boeing-Port Authority partnership "Ohio's finest example of a public-private partnership." The partnership between Southgate and the Port Authority is another example. It's that partnership that brought Samuel and heath's first major, new manufacturing plant in a generation.

GO TO: <http://www.hnlcpa.com/news/rel020907.htm>

Flight Line Café Menu

Brad Arthur, GM of the Flight Line Café, uploads the weekly menu to OnTheBase.com. See the specials for the week online.

GO TO: <http://www.onthebase.com/avi>

Video Killed the Radio Star?

This is a teaser. Did we get your attention? Stay tuned to OnTheBase.com for a sense of what this all means. March 1 sees something new to OnTheBase.com. Tune in.