Customer Survey

Take the survey. Get a pedometer. That's the tag phrase for this year's customer survey, and it's true. A free Port Authority pedometer is the reward for taking the time to complete a 25-question survey on service, amenities, and maintenance at the COATC Base Campus. The survey is underway now through June 15.

Mayors @The Base

The Base had them coming and going last Friday. Heath's new Mayor, Richard Waugh, attended an All-Tenants Management Meeting as his first official event as Mayor on his first day as Mayor. Then, outgoing Mayor Dan Dupps was honored at a farewell reception on the patio at the Flight Line Café. On Target was there for both events.

Project: James Parkway Opened

It was just seconds after the ribbon was cut by Heath, Port Authority, and business officials on May 23rd that Samuel Manu-Tech received its first delivery on the new roadway.

Take a 360° Virtual Site Tour

COATC.com, where available industrial sites at the COATC are marketed, was recently updated with 360° images. The web-based software allows visitors to scroll through at their own pace and take a virtual tour of the campus.
