Walking Path Plan Review Underway

Steps toward a new walking path have begun. The Port Authority, sparked by an overwhelming demand expressed in the recent Customer Satisfaction Survey, has accelerated plans for a safer, dedicated walking path. Plans for a phased-in approach to a Base campus path are now available for customer review online. A session for customer input is also set for August 28 at 10 a.m. at the Port Authority offices.

Fact Sheet: Electric Service

While much of Ohio was dark during a blackout in 2003 and much of Central Ohio during a ice storm in late 2004, COATC never lost power. That, coupled with some of Ohio's lowest rates and redundancy of supply and transmission lines, makes COATC a powerful source of power for industry.
