Breaking News: Boeing Extends Lease

Calling it a "tremendous milestone for the community," Boeing and the Port Authority announced a lease extension through 2014 with an option through 2018. The name of the game is "stability" as it sends a loud signal of economic and job stability with Boeing committed to retaining the facility in Heath as well as the Port Authority promising stable prices on the lease through 2018.

Bridge Nears Opening

Though enough work remains it is still too early to be precise, the Port Authority remains hopeful of an opening of the new bridge on, before, or soon after Labor Day. In action Tuesday, the Port Authority Board opted to dedicate the new bridge in honor of the people and companies from Licking County by naming the new bridge the "Made in Licking County Bridge."

Now on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn

The social media networking explosion has hit the Port Authority and The Base. With 40% of internet subscribers now using some sort of social media, its easy to see these items are here to stay. Plus, more and more people are discovering that the "social" aspects are a misnomer. The business-to-business networking aspects are taking off too.
